WHO WE ARE

IKARÛS is a young project created by four school friends from the Sants neighbourhood of Barcelona.

Made up of Edgar Oliver (drums), Jordi Mallol (guitar), Àlex Capdevila (vocals and bass) and Héctor Baigol (vocals and bass), IKARÛS stands out for its energy and stage presence.

OUR JOURNEY

Since its beginnings, the band has grown organically, earning the opportunity to play FIB 2025 as one of the winners of the Heineken Rising Stars Contest and taking second place in the first edition of the Stay Alive Fest competition in Barcelona. IKARÛS currently performs live in cities across the Iberian Peninsula.

FIRST PROJECT

FIRST EP

EL CAMINO DE LA AMARGURA

El Camino de La Amargura speaks of painful desire, emotional dependence, guilt, anger and the need to escape.

The EP is an emotional journey: it begins with being attached to what hurts, moves through confrontation and escape, and ends with the understanding that pain leaves its mark but is the path forward. Its raw, visceral and deeply honest tone gives meaning to the title: walking through bitterness to find a way out.
